2015 Scientific Sessions and Annual Meeting at Experimental Biology

DIRECTLY TARGET NUTRITION SCIENTISTS, PHYSICIANS, POTENTIAL HIRES

More than 40% of attendees read all issues.

Distribution of this annual meeting publication is targeted to ASN members attending the broader Experimental Biology meeting.

You have the opportunity, through advertising in Nutrition Notes Daily, to increase your company's visibility, invite attendees to your special events, and announce your new products.

Dear ASN Partners and Members:

Would you like to get your marketing message to more than 3,000 nutrition professionals at the American Society for Nutrition's Scientific Sessions and Annual Meeting in a timely, low-cost manner?

Nutrition Notes Daily, a full-sized tabloid newspaper, will be published three times during the annual meeting and provided free to all ASN attendees. These daily editions are printed in full color and distributed in hard copy on-site with accompanying digital editions emailed to members worldwide.

Returning this year will be two electronic-only editions: one distributed before EB 2015 and one after. These preview and wrap-up editions give advertisers an even more cost-effective way to reach the entire ASN community.

All editions are posted to the ASN blog and heavily promoted via our social media platforms. ASN science writers produce original content recapping sessions, while social events are covered with photos and attendee snapshots.

Advertising rates and mechanical specifications are printed on the reverse of this letter. Among the marketing options are classified ads, good for recruiters or departments looking for scientists, fellows or researchers. ASN Sustaining Partners receive a 25 percent discount on all ads in Nutrition Notes Daily. Previous advertisers are guaranteed the same rates they paid last year. Nutrition Notes Daily will also be published at the Advances and Controversies in Clinical Nutrition Conference. Advertisers in the March/April editions will qualify for further discounts if they repeat their ads at this event.

ASN has again partnered with CustomNEWS to bring you Nutrition Notes Daily. All inquiries, payments and advertising materials should be directed to our publisher, John Carter, at CustomNEWS, 571-232-3681.

Thank you and we look forward to seeing you in Boston, Mass., and in the pages of Nutrition Notes Daily.

Yours,
Suzanne Price, MA
